Hotel

The Club Hotel Casino is located in Loutraki, 80 km from Athens and just one hour from the airport. Loutraki is a seaside resort with a population of 16,000, situated 4 km northeast of Corinth.

It's a highly popular tourist destination, well known throughout Greece. The famous Loutraki spring waters are renowned and greatly appreciated across the country.

This luxurious beachfront hotel, nestled on the Gulf of Corinth, offers top-level services and features the largest casino in Europe.

The hotel features 254 rooms and suites across 5 floors, with views of the mountains, gardens, or the sea. All rooms are equipped with air conditioning, TV, radio, hairdryer, minibar, and Wi-Fi connection.

The region is rich in archaeological sites and historical monuments, including Epidauros, Mycenae, Olympia, Ancient Corinth, and the Acropolis.
